Irene Guanill

ASSOCIATE BROKER

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Ms. Guanill specializes in multi-family and mixed-use properties. She started her real estate career in 1997 when she began investing in distressed properties for the purpose of rehabilitation in the Bronx, New York. Irene decided to devote her full time attention to brokerage and became a licensed Real Estate Broker in 2006. Shortly thereafter, Irene launched Meet the Sellers Realty, LLC, a real estate brokerage company specializing in Bronx residential properties. In addition to her Real Estate prowess, Irene is also a Notary, a Real Estate Instructor with the Department of State and holds the additional designations of ABR, CBR, CRS, GRI, CCIM, SFR, RSPS. She is a Certified Mediator with the National Association of Realtors starting in 2010, and became a Certified Divorce Mediator in 2011. Irene joined Greiner-Maltz in 2016 and is a member of its Investment Sales division. Irene takes pride in her devotion to customer service and is dedicated to ensuring that clients make sound investment decisions when purchasing real estate by furnishing all of the information they need to make informed, responsible choices in a friendly welcoming environment.

Irene is the person that clients' can trust to be honest and caring about representing their needs, and gives 100% within her professional control. She will work as hard for you as she would for herself.
