

Maz Mazinani

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

REAL ESTATE SALESPERSON

Maz Mazinani joined Greiner-Maltz in 2018, previous to which he worked with Newmark Knight Frank. He is a licensed real estate agent in multiple states with a focus on commercial, industrial, and developmental real estate markets in New York. He specializes in representing landlords and tenants in New York, as well as 1031 Exchange transactions and investment sales. Some of his transactions have resulted in over 115% return on investments for his clients. He currently lives in Borough Park, Brooklyn with his family.

Maz has a Ph.D. in Middle Eastern Studies and Political Science from the University of Utah, where he was a Postdoctoral Fellow and Research Scholar teaching various social sciences courses. He has published more than two dozen scholarly pieces in peer-reviewed journals, and has won 6 prestigious awards. He grew up boxing and riding horses, and currently enjoys biking New York inch-by-inch to find ideal properties for his clients.