

SHARONE LEVY

VICE PRESIDENT, GREINER-MALTZ
Associate Real Estate Broker

Sharone Levy, Vice President at Greiner-Maltz, is a 20-year veteran of both residential and commercial real estate and has consummated over 500 commercial/industrial sales & leasing transactions throughout the Brooklyn, NY area.

In the past 14 years Sharone has concentrated his efforts solely on commercial and industrial real estate. Before that, his specialty was Manhattan residential real estate, where he managed a satellite office for a national real estate company and directed the daily operations of over 35 brokers.

Since joining Greiner-Maltz in 2004, Sharone has spearheaded the marketing of over 7,000,000 sf of prime commercial property in the Brooklyn, NY area; and has completed transactions valuing over $380,000,000.00.

In October of 2011, the City of New York/EDC had awarded the exclusive representation for the leasing of the Brooklyn Army Terminal, a 4-million SF industrial complex on 97 acres of land in Sunset Park, Brooklyn to Sharone Levy of Greiner-Maltz, as Director. Due to his outstanding performance, the city had renewed the contract for an additional two years. Prior to completion, Sharone had already leased a total of approximately 1,000,000 SF, bringing the Terminal to 100% occupancy.
