

Samia Farah

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Real Estate Salesperson

Joining the world of real estate in 2013 and excelling as a Real Estate Broker for Century 21, Samia Farah was recruited in 2014 by Greiner-Maltz Investment Properties to be one of the Directors of Sales.

At Greiner-Maltz Investment Properties, Ms. Farah has been working to help owners and users of commercial, industrial, retail, office, investment and development real estate by providing expert brokerage services coupled with up to date market knowledge.

In 2016 alone, Ms. Farah has sold over $45,000,000 worth of properties and successfully leased $4,000,000 worth of units in Queens particularly in Elmhurst and Jamaica where her expertise is unparalleled.

Samia is a loyal 14-year resident of Queens. She was born and raised in Ecuador and emigrated to the United States in 2001 after working for the Ecuadorian Government as an administrative coordinator for the Vice President of Congress. Her background also consists of working for Mass Mutual in financial services. She received her Bachelor's degree in International Business from Central University of Quito in Ecuador and attended 3 years of law school.

In her spare time, Samia enjoys playing tennis, golf, and being a mother to two children.

In addition to her leadership at Greiner Maltz Investment Properties, Samia is an active member of the following organizations:

- Jamaica Chamber of Commerce
- JFK Chamber of Commerce
- Queens and Bronx Building Association (QBBA)