PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Real Estate Salesperson

In just his first year, Jacob Beer exploded onto the 2015 commercial real estate market closing deals totaling nearly $3M. Although he is new to the industry, vast marketing experience has paid dividends in his ability to read clients' needs and match them with suitable solutions. Jacob has developed close ties to the community while working extensively with many organizations, creating a vast network of potential customers.

Having studied Business Management at Touro College, Jacob has been the owner/manager of a small marketing firm for six years.

His specialty is working within the industrial and development markets in Brooklyn and Queens.
